

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's)

Questions	Answers
What should my child bring to camp?	Each child should bring a hat, water bottle and sunscreen. Proper tennis shoes are a must to participate in all activities.
Do they need to have their own racquet?	A tennis racquet is required; however, if your child does not have one, we do have a limited number of used racquets on loan. Head junior racquets can also be purchased from the Head Pro.
Are snacks or lunch provided for full day programs?	We do provide healthy snacks throughout the day such as fruit and crackers. Full day campers are to bring their own peanut free lunch. We encourage drinking water instead of sugary juices and pop.
What happens when it rains?	Any time it rains during the summer you can choose to either leave your child at the clubhouse for supervised indoor activities or plan other activities for your child and schedule a make-up session. There are a number of options for make-ups: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. For half day campers, if it rains only in the morning, the lessons are made up in the afternoon that day or another day. If it rains in the afternoon, the lesson will be moved to the morning camp the next morning or another day. Students will stay for a full day of camp. 2. For full day campers, if the entire day is rained out you can arrange to have a make-up class to replace the rain day during the following week or another week during the summer. Make up classes are strongly encouraged so that the students get the full benefit of the tennis instructions. We are very flexible and will be happy to accommodate you the best we can.
What type of activities will my child be participating in during the camp?	We are a tennis specific camp; therefore, all activities from the warm up until the end of camp are geared towards learning tennis fundamentals. All campers warm up at the beginning by running and stretching. Depending on the level of play they will do drills and engage in games geared towards improving their level of play. More advanced students will play matches and learn strategies on how to construct points.
What about early drop off or late pick up?	Early drop off at 7:00 a.m. and late pick up, up to 6:00 p.m. is provided at a rate of $5.00 per hour. You must arrange drop off and pick up times with the camp administrator when registering for camp.
Do they have to be members?	Yes, the Forest Hill Tennis Club requires all camp participants to be members of the club. The junior membership fee is very reasonable and will allow full use of the club during members only times. Please see the FHTC membership page for details.
Is the camp tax deductible?	Yes. The camp is considered a physical activity, based on the provincial bylaws; therefore, receipts will be issued at the end of each tennis season.
